THE SPECIAL TAX BILL.

The House took very important action on the special tax bill this morning. Many amendments were easily beaten. One of the provisions agreed to abolishes the office of Special Revenue Agent, and transfers the duties of that office to the new collectional Revenue, of which there is to be one in each Judicial District. This clause goes into effect thirty days after the passage of the bill. Another provision restricts the work of Collectors to their own districts, and does away with the general system under which one or two Collectors have been making circuits all over the country. Mr. Ivins's amendment, declaring that no spirits shall be withdrawn from distillery warehouses till the tax is paid, for any purpose whatever, was opposed by the committee, but finally carried by twenty-six majority. This affected one of the most vital parts of the measure, and necessitated the striking out of section-four. Sixty-two in sixty-one minutes, which provided for the establishment of export warehouses, and made the regulations easy for government. The Ivins clause, which was debated last night in a small house by fourteen majority, was carried to-day by nineteen majority. Various other amendments were adopted, and on matters now stand, all the whiskey issues must be paid at the distillery. There can be no transportation in bond, and there are no export warehouses. A drawback of fifty cents per gallon is allowed on all distilled spirits exported. All manufactured tobacco, snuff, cigars, cigarettes, fine cut chewing tobacco, and all fermented liquors, except cider, are subject to the tax. The bill takes effect in two months, or be restricted to the United States. It is hoped that the bill will be passed to-day in order that it may be sent to the Senate and acted upon before adjournment, through the Chairman of the Ways and Means Orders great floods keep up communication with the country, and the effects of the bill has been acted on in Committee of the Whole.

IN THE SENATE.

The Senate to-day, in acting upon the General Appropriation bill, struck out the clause appropriating $2,000 for the purchase of a portrait of the late President Lincoln, which bill the House of Representatives passed some time since. The Senate Committee on Printing is directed to draw up an advertisement for the proposals, and report at the next session of the Senate, on the subject of the conduct of the government printing office with such amendments of what it will cost to do the work there.

THE ACTION BY SUBCOMMITTEE.

The Senate Judiciary Committee will not take any action in the matter of the impeachment of the President on Saturday, and it is impossible to predict how they will report it. It is stated by members of the committee that the report will be in favor of the impeachment. Should this be the case, it is not probable that the House will consider the question during the consideration of the Tax Bill.

THE HOUSE.

The House then went into Committee on the Tax Bill.

Mr. PRICE's amendment, offered last evening, was adopted by a vote of 81 to 74.

Mr. SCHENCK moved a partial amendment, the effect of which would be to amend the bill, but not to take it out of Committee of the Whole.

Mr. BUTLER moved to strike out Section 32, providing for the warehouse system. He contended that the warehouse system was unconstitutional, partial, and unjust

TRIBUNE OFFICE, CHICAGO, Tuesday, June 16.

To the Editor of The Chicago Tribune:

I see in THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE of June 13, 1868, in the news column, that the Bostonese may venture have made their appearance in Illinois Country, and in another column, that this appearance is in great numbers (4 and down Not Adding). It is but fair to say that intent to any of the readers of THE TRIBUNE, I will give you my experience in regard to the matter, though I know nothing about your locusts.

The first year that I ever saw them was in Ohio, in 1835. Seventeen years afterward, in 1852, they made their appearance in Illinois, and, in the same State. In the spring of 1868 I removed to Richmond, Wisconsin, and that year (being eighty years after they had made their appearance in Ohio) they appeared in Southern Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. Seventeen years afterward, in 1885, they again appeared in the same region, but I do not know whether they appeared in other localities or not. Of this I am sure, that they will not appear in this region, but I do not know that they will not appear in other localities

THE CITY.

Police Matters To-Day.—The record of the Police Court this morning was a very light one. Only a few cases were disposed of, and those were of a petty character. Fines were imposed in all cases, and the aggregate amount was $25. Those who were unable to pay their fines will be given 10 days in the City Prison.

Sunday Excursions.—The Chicago Steamboat Association has decided to run excursions to Michigan City every Sunday during the season, which will be given in due time.

Going to New York.—The Chicago Steamboat Association has decided to run a special train to-day to New York, where they go to attend the great Sunday-school celebration.

Railway Accident.—Shortly after noon, yesterday, a car of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, and a dummy on the Milwaukee Cousing Railroad, ran into each other, at the intersection of the two roads, just to the north of the depot. The dummy was thrown off the track, and the car was damaged to a considerable extent. Fortunately, however, but few were inside of the cars, and no one was seriously injured.

Runaway, Fighting and Art Festival.—The members of the Second Baptist Sunday-School and its admirers will be held to-morrow at Evanston. Two first-class steamers will leave the foot of Lake street, at 9 A. M., and the facility of ways by them to enjoy themselves.

Burden Bought.—Another speculative distillery whose specialty of late has been, it is alleged, the extensive distillation of highwines without the payment of the internal revenue tax, and the sale of such highwines to unsuspecting purchasers, has been bought out by the Government. Mr. Burden, it is said, is pleased at the change, as he will be relieved from the responsibility of paying the tax.

Orange on the Wire Side Now.—A complaint was made to the West Side Police Court by Peter Stelting and one other citizen against Mary Nellie Dean, the accomplished young shaver, who appears, good-natured as ever, in the dock. The complaint was made against her for keeping a house of ill-fame. She was fined $100 and costs, and in default of payment was committed to the County Jail for 90 days.

Sunday Funerals.—Above will be found a list of the funerals announced to take place to-day. Those who will wish to attend the funeral of Mr. H. Coolbaugh, the well-known pioneer, will be glad to learn that the hour has been changed from 2 to 3 o'clock P. M. The funeral will take place from the residence of Mr. H. Coolbaugh, on the West Side
